Palm Springs has long been deemed California's ultimate desert playground.

For decades, nearly a century in fact, it's been the quintessential oasis for outdoor adventure, arts and culture, gaming and entertainment.

It's a vibrant village with an urban sensibility, dotted with a wonderful assortment of fashion and crafts boutiques, art galleries, theaters and museums.

It's an irresistible collection of historic, retro and mid-century modern treasures. Eclectic film festivals. Restaurants, cafes and late night bistros of every description.

And then there's the golf. Spectacular golf.

Lying at the base of stunning mountains with pristine desert backdrops.

Visitors the world over are lured to Palm Springs for its storied Hollywood legacy, Native American heritage and a stellar collection of mid-century modern architecture.

Whether you're planning a family vacation, a romantic retreat, or maybe just a friends getaway, Palm Springs is fun in the sun all year-round.

Blessed with gorgeous weather, brilliant blue skies and year round sunshine, the desert's natural beauty sets the stage to explore ancient palm groves and blooming desert vistas. Stunning mountains at the city's edge provide ready access and a dramatic natural backdrop to the entire town.

And after a long day of play, there's simply no better way to unwind with friends than with a nice, cool cocktail poolside. Maybe a swim under the stars.

The good news? It's a desert paradise only two short hours from either Los Angeles or San Diego. The better news? You'll find our Palm Springs International Airport offers direct flights from major cities all across the U.S. and Canada.

The Visitors Center, open 9:00 am - 5:00 pm daily, offers cool swag for sale, fun things to do, and a staff to help plan it.

It's located at:

2901 N. Palm Canyon Dr.

(at Tramway Rd.)

We happen to think offering resort experiences in small, medium, large – or 50-years-old, for that matter – truly sets us apart.

Small inns abound in Palm Springs, and many are historically significant. From 100-year-old adobe inns to 1920s jewels to Mediterranean inspired villas, these are small treasures not to be missed.

Inns with bouganvillea-draped patios are tucked in next to hip, cool mid-century classics.

Others reflect the Spanish architecture that dominated the early 20th century. And all feature service and amenities that are warm, welcoming, and offer something for every pocketbook.

Most are independently owned and operated, and all are less than fifty rooms – some a mere handful of rooms surrounding the definitive Palm Springs pool – giving you the personal attention and memorable experience of a desert oasis resort not found in larger hotels.

The boutique inns and intimate hotels in and around downtown Palm Springs are nestled at the base of the majestic Mount San Jacinto.

The distinctive architecture, the individual personalities, the affordable luxury of these small jewels all shine through the moment you arrive at their doorsteps.

Classic mid-century modern architecture, better known as desert modernism, is cherished by visitors and dwellers of Palm Springs alike.

So grab your umbrella-adorned cocktail and swing into the retro vibe of one of these classic beauties.

Or pick a secluded and romantic villa that sets the mood to enjoy evening happy hours, relaxing midnight swims and poolside spa treatments.

Like the boutique hotels and inns, Palm Canyon Drive and other distinctive districts place shopping, dining, entertainment, gaming and more at everyone's doorstep. Whatever you choose, you'll be reminded on a daily basis just how good life can be under the desert's sun, moon and stars.
